Local businesses to receive employee benefits guidance, resources and programs

ROSEMONT, Ill. (Sept. 20, 2012) – Flexible Benefit Service Corporation (Flex) today announced a partnership with the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce to provide local businesses with cost-effective health insurance programs. A leading provider of innovative, consumer-driven employee benefits programs, Flex is featuring its InsureXSolutions™ private health insurance exchange for the Chicagoland Chamber’s uninsured business members.

The private exchange promotes a defined contribution funding model that gives uninsured employers a way to set their own budget and assist employees with health care expenses. The InsureXSolutions web platform provides an online insurance marketplace where employees can shop, compare and apply for health, Medicare, short-term and vision insurance that fits their personal needs.

“This partnership speaks volumes about the innovation that we offer to the marketplace,” said President of Flex, John DiVito. “We are a small business and understand the needs of other business owners. We firmly believe that all employers should have the ability to offer benefits to employees and InsureXSolutions is the ideal solution.”

The Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce has more than 2,000 business members that need health insurance services and support to succeed. “Partnering with Flex allows us to provide more options to our membership base and offer support and educational programs to those that need it most,” says Damian Silver, Director of Small Business Development for the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce.

Flex will also be offering Chicagoland Chamber business members with direct access to its cost-effective portfolio of consumer-driven, tax-advantaged programs, including flexible spending accounts (FSAs), health savings accounts (HSAs), health reimbursement arrangements (HRAs) and transit/parking reimbursement accounts (TRAs), as well as COBRA administration.
