

Flex Enhancements Promote Savvy Benefits Utilization

New compliance offering, online eligible expense lookup and educational videos now available for employers and employees

ROSEMONT, Ill. (October 15, 2015) – Flexible Benefit Service Corporation (Flex) recently launched digital enhancements for plan sponsors and participants in preparation for the 2016 Open Enrollment season, including:

- Wrap Document Services
 - Helps employers meet the written plan document requirements established by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).
 - Ensures that all of the required plan participant protections are addressed in writing for each health and welfare benefit offered by an employer.
 - Simplifies the Form 5500 filing process.
- Mobile App
 - Removes the guesswork for participants of Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs), Health Savings Accounts (HSAs) and/or Health Reimbursement Arrangements (HRAs) since the necessary information is available at their fingertips.
 - Substantiation is no longer a worry nor an afterthought since the mobile app integrates with the benefits portal, allowing claims to be submitted on-the-spot.
- Eligible Expense Lookup
 - A searchable list for those individuals looking to find what is eligible for reimbursement under the FSA or HSA.
 - Individuals can easily check to see which type of consumer-driven account would make the most sense for them before they enroll and they can return to use it as a day-to-day reference when their account is active.
- Educational Videos
 - Simple, animated overviews on key benefits concepts, including: What is an FSA?, Using Your HSA and more.
 - Gives employers, individuals and their dependents a practical look into how these benefits work.

“Providing individuals with the know-how needed to use their consumer-driven accounts is paramount to having these benefits be successful in the workplace,” said John DiVito, president at Flex. “The
